

Home Learning

	Literacy	Maths	Weekly Project
Monday	LO: To identify features of an autobiography Pick out features from the text using a checklist. Timeline out key events. Link features they have found to the text.	LO: To interpret pictogram data Look at pictograms. Pay attention to the key. Remember, when reasoning, give a full answer.	Think tank - Design a better world. Choose your global goal e.g floods, climate changes, water sanitation, renewable energy, hunger. Design or improve existing ideas. How can you help the world? Share your ideas with us by emailing or blogging your work.
Tuesday	LO: To compare biographies and autobiographies Identify which text is a biography and which is an auto biography.	LO: To interpret and present chart data Look at bar graphs. Pay attention to the key. Remember, when reasoning, give a full answer.	Which leaf has the largest are? Collect different types of leaves. They all have different shapes. Can you name trees where they come from? Use squared paper to trace and cut out leaves. Count squares to determine which leave has the largest area.
Wednesday	LO: To plan an autobiography Children to be reminded Recap features used in an autobiography. Template used to help structure of work. Plan your autobiography.	LO: To interpret and present data Interpret tables. Work it out carefully which information are important.	Thinking skills. Play game "If I were a ..." Choose a word or subject and follow structure. I were..., I would..., How or why..... Involve everyone. Go around the room and gather all the ideas. First person stops the cycle is out.
Thursday	LO: To write an autobiography Recap features used in an autobiography. Template used to help structure of work. Plan your autobiography.	LO: To interpret line graphs What is a difference between line graph and bar chart? Plot line graphs and use reasoning to interpret events.	Sports Day Competition. Invite your parents/ siblings outside. Create a sports day competitions for everyone to participate. Who is going to win?
Friday	Next term, we are going to be learning about the Ancient Romans. Here are some ideas for the projects you may like to complete over summer holidays. Make an information board about Roman soldiers. Write a newspaper report about an event in Roman times. Research Italian cuisine and make a recipe book. If you want to be a scientist, collect information about rock cycle and how fossils are made. Remember, stay safe and happy.		